Summary

Recon Catering is a division of Threeways Roadhouse, and primarily caters to the mining, oil and gas sectors.

We have 28 Employees and our main focus is to provide quality catering and accommodation management. We are an independent company and focus solely on our customers.

Recon is positioned as a mobile company with offices in the Northern Territory and Queensland, enabling us to service all areas regardless of location.

Recon Catering has a skilled workforce, with great food and good old fashioned service. We have focused our time and energy on recruiting the best staff, best produce with excellent service.

Description

Quality products and fantastic customer service is the core of this company, based in the Northern Territory for the past 10 years, with another office in Queensland, we are positioned as a mobile company and can service all areas regardless of location.

weather it be a new camp opening, a camp re-opening, or just a change of catering, we are the company, no opportunity is too small or to big.

Reasons to use Recon Catering

1. we spend money on quality staff, the best produce, not marketing, we believe that a superior product are our best marketing tools.

2. No cutting corners with our menus, they are not designed in a head office, chefs are artists, with the direction of our head chef we let them be creative.

3. as we are a small to medium company, should you have a question, compliment or complaint, we will not palm you off to a area manager, direct communication with the owners,

4. Recon is a independent company, meaning we have no shareholders to satisfy or dividends to pay. We can focus solely on the customer and making sure that we only deliver the highest quality goods and services
